Josephine: How this initiative has come to be. What went before. Where we are as Society with Ecology now. The movement from environmental actions, eco-friendly living, to the deep call we feel now.

Laudato Si, LSAP and our commitment as Society to it.

Where are we at this moment in the Society with Ecology and where have we come from. Why this training at the moment we as a Society have committed to the LSAP. Josephine who has gone the way of this training and the training of Laudato Si can explain how these two programs complement each other.

Josephine will explain how this initiative has come to be. The training in E. Africa in 2019, initiative for a training in Ecological Leadership and because of Corona now on line.

How we started last year and how now we have made the training international for MMS.

Elly: How the website came to be, as back up for the training.

This website, my legacy.. the process in this website. What all has happened the past 25 years and the awareness of the deep process of conversion the Church has gone through. I was part of that process in a very special way. My sense of responsibility to pass it on to next generations and tell the story of the call for care for the Earth. My story of discovering and ecological conversion.

Discovering Ecological Spirituality and the process of integration all over the past years. It is all God's Work and the work of the Spirit.

Yvette: short. Her experience of helping to design this website. Her availability

2. The Learning Community

- Today we introduce the page Learning community

- The inspiration: my experience with Conscious Evolution, a deep desire and vision. Covid time...now is the time.. The need for support, share our grief etc. find a new vision to continue. Every experience and creative idea is needed. Each one of us has so much to share and contribute. "Your heart is not your own: the shared world heart... The New Normal": sharing and learning in circles.. The circle: symbol of community of life. Where we gather in circles, energy is bundled.. We are in the flow of energy of community of life.
- Spiritual leadership for our time: to understand how the life in the cosmos works, to be connected with Earth and Cosmos. Only when grounded we will find the strength and power to live through this time.
- How to participate in this worldwide movement? Create your own learning community...
- Unconditional love: the process of growth.
- To build circle of co-creation. Some basic rules
- The commitment

3. Practical arrangements, further possibilities.. what you can do in these coming weeks..

- Find your own learning community.. share and learn...
- Reflective time.. write down your visions, insights
- Make a gratitude journal
- Listen to the Earth speaking to you
- Be invited as a co-creator. Our Creator calls on you..
